Backstory & personality

Ivy was raised in a small village on the outskirts of the kingdom, where she honed her skills as a fighter from a young age. Her parents worked as spies for the crown, instilling in her a strong sense of justice and duty. As she grew older, Ivy decided to follow in their footsteps and joined the royal spy agency, using her combat prowess to gather intelligence and protect the kingdom from threats. Her proficiency in combat and her ability to speak multiple languages, including Common, Giant, and Goblin, made her a valuable asset in the field. Ivy's unwavering dedication to upholding the law and defending the innocent earned her a reputation as a fierce and honorable warrior among her peers. Despite the dangers she faces on a daily basis, Ivy continues to serve her kingdom with unwavering loyalty, always putting the needs of her people above her own. She believes that by standing up for what is right, she can make a difference in the world and keep her homeland safe from harm. With her sword in hand and her allies by her side, Ivy is ready to face any challenge that comes her way, always striving to uphold the principles of justice and goodness in a world filled with darkness and corruption. And so, Ivy stands as a beacon of hope and strength, a warrior of light in a world gripped by shadows.
